GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS
Minnesota-North Dakota Tuition Reciprocity Program
2010-2011 Academic year (Fall 2010-Spring/Summer 2011)

- ✓ To avoid delay, applications must be mailed directly to the appropriate state and agency by the applicant
- ✓ The application must be completed in ink or typed
- ✓ APPLICATION TO THE PROGRAM IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL

HOW TO APPLY: Complete this application IN FULL and sign the certification. Mail the completed application DIRECTLY to the higher education or vocational/technical agency located in the state of your residence. Addresses for these agencies are listed below. Reciprocity recipients who earned credits during the 2009-2010 academic year will automatically have benefits renewed for 2010-2011 at the institution reporting credits for the student during the 2009-2010 academic year. Therefore, these students do NOT need to complete a reciprocity application for the 2010-2011 academic year. If your current institution has not received notification of your renewal status by November 1, 2010, please contact the administering agency in your state of residence.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES: The application for tuition reciprocity must be correctly completed and postmarked by the last day of the term for which benefits are needed. The application deadline for all students, except those in vocational and technical programs, is the last day of classes at the institution you are or will be attending in the term that benefits are required. Applications will not be processed retroactively. If you wish to participate in the program for the entire academic year, your application must be correctly completed and postmarked by the last day of scheduled classes in the fall term at the institution you are or will be attending.

VOCATIONAL AND TECHNICAL PROGRAMS: The application for tuition reciprocity for vocational and technical programs must be correctly completed and postmarked by the deadline date of the term for which benefits are needed. The term deadlines for the MN-ND Vocational Reciprocity Program are: Fall-12/15/10, Spring 5/20/2011, Summer 8/20/2011. Applications will not be processed retroactively. If you wish to participate in the program for the entire academic year, your application must be correctly completed and postmarked by the fall term deadline, 12/15/10, for vocational and technical programs.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: The Minnesota-North Dakota Tuition Reciprocity Program improves the postsecondary educational advantages for residents of Minnesota and North Dakota through greater availability and accessibility of postsecondary educational opportunities. Any student who is enrolled in an eligible program and meets residency requirements at a public institution in North Dakota may attend a Minnesota public institution on a space available basis and pay the established reciprocity fee for course work that is located in Minnesota under this program. Similarly, any student who meets residency requirements in Minnesota may attend a North Dakota public institution on a space available basis and pay the established reciprocity fee for course work that is located in North Dakota. Students enrolled in those programs where special contracts exist between the two states are exempt.
